Sleep tight

Get your baby settled in a cute pair of PJs that are up to the job

They haven't yet invented PJs that encourage bub to sleep through the night, but the ones you choose can make all the difference to baby's comfort level. Sleeveless, cotton onesies will prevent overheating in summer, while long-sleeved footed onesies and cotton two-piece PJ sets are great during spring and autumn. Save the flannels for winter, and go for pyjamas that have very few studs and buttons to assist with quick 2am nappy changes.

Girls 1 $34.95, Purebaby (purebaby.com.au). Be nice to your bub's skin with 100 per cent certified organic cotton fabric. 2 $7, Tiny Little Wonders, available at Kmart (1800 124 125). An elasticised, drawstring waist makes this set a fast-change hero. 3 $39.95, Mothercare (1300 217 700). Babies like kimono-style tops because they're not a tight fit over the head. 4 $39.95, Huckleberry Lane (huckleberrylane.com). Snug pyjamas look cute if you're taking baby out at night. 5 $39.95, Snugglebun (snugglebun.com.au). No sneaky breezes will get to bub through this onesie and the full-length zipper makes changing easier. 6 $54, Eeni Meeni Miini Moh (eenimeeni.com). There'll be no kicking off the covers in a soft, jersey sleepsack Boys 1 $29.95, Infancy (infancy.com.au). Made of 100 per cent cotton, this is great for warm, summer nights. 2 $34.95, Snugglebun (snugglebun.com.au). Soft arm and leg bands stop cuffs riding up little limbs. 3 $39.95, Huckleberry Lane (huckleberrylane.com). Breathable cotton makes sleeping more comfortable. 4 $15, Bonds Baby (1800 054 321).
