

Herald Sun

home

>> in the glow
Design your own Christmas candles

homesite.com.au

December 16, 2006

perfect match

Blending an old floor
with a new one

Hidden treasure

filled with love

Make little things go a long way with these stocking fillers, sure to bring a smile to the faces of young and old

$65.00

< french flair A new range of candles from US company Seda France has just hit Australia, with beautiful packaging to match the exquisite scents. They are all based on the aromas of French flowers, forests and gardens, including hyacinth, French tulip and gardenia. Phone 9510 9352.

$9.95 EACH

^ monster munchies Billed as the ideal accompaniment to fine dining for the under-fives, these monster plates are colourful and quirky. Melamine, dishwasher-safe and available in four designs, they are from Heide Museum of Modern Art's gift shop, Bulleen, phone 9850 1500.

0.00

A cupcake trinket is a hit with those in love with snacks and floral fancies. The ceramic design is from Heide Museum of Modern Art, phone 9509 7166.

3.95 PACK

Don't forget your dog this Christmas, the happy barks, soulful eyes and wagging tails. Happy Yappers has dog treats, with salt or sugar. The four in a box ($13.95), and the Christmas bones $9.95. Phone 9391 5252

$24.95

^ green thumbs The Garden Book is a practical guide full of handy tips to make your green patch a year-round success. From dealing with garden pests, to growing the perfect rose, this compact read is a useful resource. Published by Murdoch Books.

>> Mark Taylor