NEW OFFERINGS

Rachel Pearson, creator of Byron Bay label Offerings, has always loved hand-batiked fabrics and has a collection of some very beautiful, old pieces. Now in its third season, Orange Threads was an offshoot of Rachel's passion. Printed using a unique batiking process that's ideal for kids' wear, the hand-dyed pieces are designed to be adaptable, so skirts can be worn as dresses or thrown over pants. 'I love the way kids wear clothes and how they stamp their own style from an early age,' says Rachel, sister to Lydia (of Easton Pearson). Miya kaftan, $60. Sizes two to 10. Visit www.orangethreads.com.au.

FIRST STEPS

Eeni Meeni Miini Moh now has its first-ever footwear collection, just in time for summer. There are three contemporary shoe styles to choose from – Matisse, Tuckson and Rothko (pictured). Available for both boys and girls aged from three months to seven years, prices range from $99 to $119. To view the full Spring/Summer fashion collection simply visit www.eenimeeni.com.

PICK OF THE PATCH

Long-time respected label Pumpkin Patch has come up with another bright, fun baby and toddler summer range. Your little man will be all set for action with this cute cotton tee, $18.99, and shorts, $22.99. Phone 1800 123 430 or visit www.pumpkinpatch.com.au.

EASY FEEDING

With its simple but nifty design and hand-dyed cotton stretch fabric, the Moire Stretch top adapts from everyday wear to pregnancy, breastfeeding and beyond. Priced from $69.95 and exclusive to Venetia Elaine. Available in cap and three-quarter sleeves. Call 02 9365 6855 or visit www.molrestretch.com.

SIMPLY FINNIGAN

'Simple, high-quality garments with a point of difference – that describes Finnigan Finn,' says Deborah Pepper of the children's clothing label for two-to-seven year olds that's been going for two years now. Created by her sister, award-winning designer Linda Mackay, the collection also makes extensive use of denim. Annie Apple cotton elastane top, $44.95. www.finniganfinn.com.au.

SNUGGLE UP

Your kids will sleep comfy and cool this summer in the new range of soft 100 percent cotton sleepwear from Snugglum. Available for babies aged from three to six months right up to five-year-olds, there are sweet nighties, all-in-one rompers, shortjohns and longjohns to choose from. The Springbloom romper, $34.95, features a snap-button bottom for easy changing, while the Juicy Fruits shortjohn and short-sleeved top, $34.95, has a sweet berry print. Call 1300 657 131 or visit www.snugglum.com.au for the whole collection.
