Striding out

Starting as a tiny stall in London's Portobello markets in 1973, Pepe Jeans London is now available in 30 countries, including Australia. The label has just announced Sienna Miller, 25, as spokeswoman for their spring/summer '06 collection. Pepe's managing director, Carlos Ortega, said the actress was the perfect "strong, positive British figure" the company was seeking.

Mad hatters

Heather Locklear in Los Angeles on April 25.

Denise Richards in Italy on May 22.

If you believe the rumour mill, Denise Richards stole Heather Locklear's hubby, Richie Sambora, but did she nick off with her hat, too? Both bombshells have been snapped in the same Helen Kaminski "Austin" hat just weeks apart. Elle Macpherson also bought the same model from London boutique Heidi Klein.

Ready, steady, snuggle...
