

Woman's Day

NICOLE'S WEDDING SECRET
WHY SHE'S REALLY MARRYING KEITH

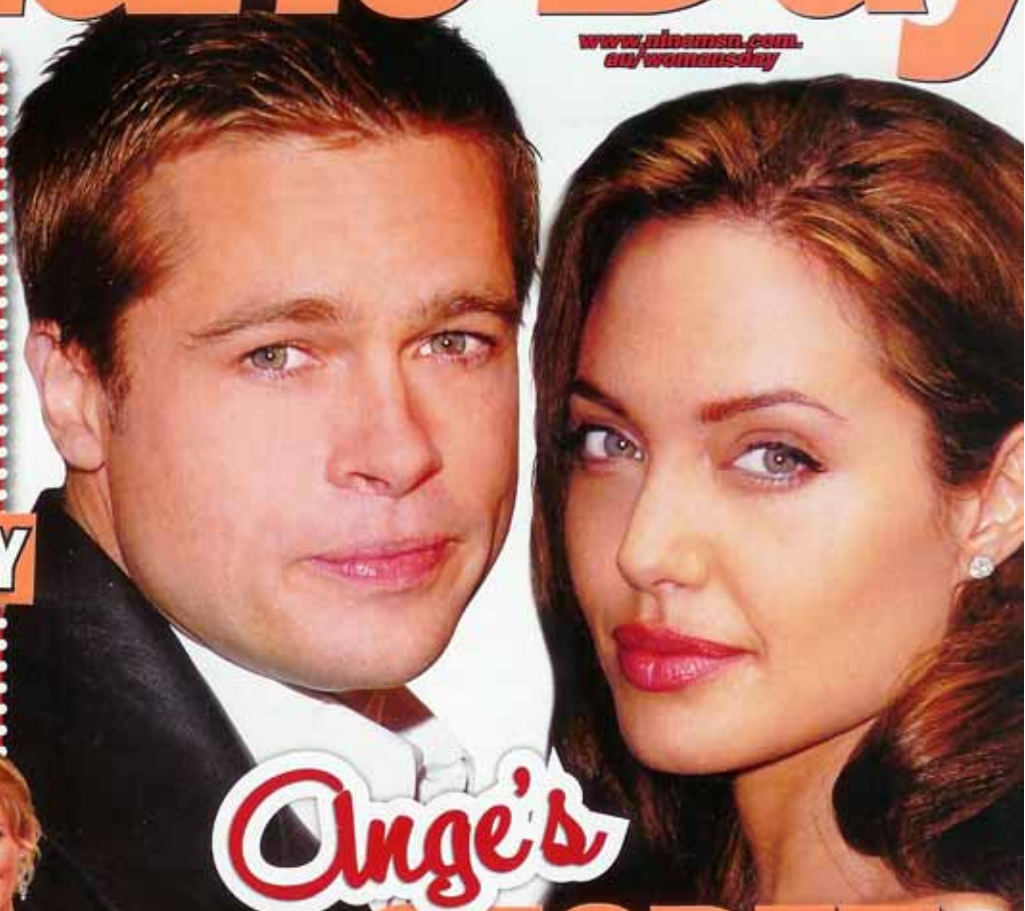

WE'RE AUSTRALIA'S
No. 1
MAGAZINE

JUNE 5, 2008
AUST $3.80
(INC. GST)

www.phonson.com.au
or woman'sday

SOPHIE'S MIRACLE RECOVERY
DAD TELLS 'SHE NEVER GAVE UP FIGHTING'

Angelina's SECRET
BABY BREAKDOWN
& Zahara's tragic illness

MIA'S BIG NEWS
plus
'MY DIET SECRETS'

BROOKE'S NEW BUB
cute pics

acp
Print Post Approved
PP25500300551
9 513006 000013

Bec

MY BUSY MONTH

WITH MIA

BEC UPDATES US ON LIFE WITH HER GORGEOUS DAUGHTER MIA, AND TELLS ALL ABOUT THEIR BIG NIGHT AT THE LOGIES

hI AGAIN. Well, I've definitely been busy since you last heard from me. After my first big trip away for the year, I had a couple of weeks in Melbourne for the Davis Cup [tennis], where Australia defeated Belarus 5-0 and will go on to play Argentina in the semi-final later in the year.

I've had a quick trip to Adelaide to catch up with friends there, and for them to see how much Mia has grown. I've been unpacking and washing my clothes from the seven weeks away – thankfully in a washing machine and not the hotel bath tub! I'd never realised what a luxury a washing machine is until I'd spent hours on my knees wringing out clothes in the bath when I was away.

I've also been running around, fitting in visits to the pediatrician and the not-so-fun trips to the doctor for Mia's vaccinations – and, to finish off, a trip to the hairdresser to cover up the seven weeks of re-growth! Boy... I'm exhausted just writing about it!

But before packing up and heading off again, Lleyton and I had a function to attend – the TV Week Logie Awards in Melbourne.

It was a little different and a little exciting to get all dressed up for the night, so I was really looking forward to it. And when the day arrived, I was dressed and ready to go.

The arrival and walking the red carpet is always overwhelming. It's such a surreal situation, and no matter how many times I do it, I always seem to get nervous. I'm sure there's someone just waiting to try and catch you out, whether it be a wardrobe malfunction or even tripping over.

Anyway, I survived the red carpet and made it inside, where I was able to catch up with my old Home And Away cast mates.

A couple of the highlights from the night for me would have to be Bert Newton performing alongside the [archival] footage of the late Graham Kennedy, and Kate Ritchie winning the Silver Logie for Most Popular Actress on Australian Television. I couldn't think of Children's Program' and had a special guest presenter join us, our beautiful daughter Mia, in a matching Zimmerman dress like my own. I think she was more interested in the envelope.

It was so nice to have her a part of what could be my last Logies for a while. And after usually having her with me 24/7

I was missing her, so it was nice that she could pop down for a cuddle.

With so much happening, our time at home flew and we were on another flight heading to Europe for the French Open and Wimbledon. Probably our last flight where we can stay seated. It looks as though Mia will crawl any day, so I'm sure on the flight home we'll be chasing her down the aisle.

She's getting a little restless now, so I'd better go and entertain her.

Talk to you soon!

'Mia has grown so much ... it looks like she'll be crawling any day now'

anyone who deserved it more. She gave a beautiful, heartfelt speech and looked absolutely stunning!

Another exciting moment for Lleyton and I was when we presented the award for 'Most Outstanding Bec says one of the highlights of her big night at the TV Week Logies was presenting an award with Lleyton and Mia, who even wore a matching dress!

Mia should be crawling by the time the Hewitts get back from the European tennis circuit.

Bec!